Lodging

Desert Casitas

Our 8 beautiful desert Eco-casitas for two people have stone floors, stucco walls, and thatch roof. Solar powered lamps in each room and a side table. Bedding and towels are provided.

Casa Calma Private Casita

Our private on site bungalow is perfect for retreat leaders. Equipped with a queen bed, couch, an outside kitchen, gas stove and inside shower and bathroom sink.

Our Amenities

- We are off grid! 100% of our electricity is from the solar panels on site and it is provided from 7 am to 10 pm in the main areas (main palapa, kitchen, bathrooms, dining room and kitchen).
- Our central Palapas are gorgeous yoga, art, dance spaces. They can also be set up as a meeting space with capacity for 16 seated people. Dry erase board with markers can be provided and used for a projection screen, 110 ac/dc volt outlet.
- Open air dining area, shaded by curtains which makes it a pleasant place to enjoy the warm climate as you enjoy our fabulous meals with a gentle breeze or by candlelight
- Meals are made fresh in our kitchen by Chef Malena. We provide a delicious homemade Mexican and International cuisine experience. Our food is prepared with sustainable sourced, organic and quality local ingredients. Menu can be adjusted to meet your groups' dietary needs.
- Shared bathroom facilities, two dry toilets and two showers and sinks. In addition to the regular showers, we also have alternative solar showers to heat with the sun and use less water.

"The most beautiful surroundings you will ever be immersed in! My trip to La Duna was magical. The nature and people touched my heart in a way that I will never forget. I will be back!!!"
~ Jessica Riley-Norton, Yoga Instructor

Transportation

Airport transfers from La Paz airport or city are included at specific times ONLY either way. For transfers from Los Cabos Airport (SJD) we can help you organize a shuttle pickup for your group for an additional cost.
